FWM @ Home Activity:

Been Seeing You

Materials:
- Paper
- Drawing Materials

Steps:
1. Ask someone you live with if you could draw them each day for a week. If you don’t live with anyone, you could draw someone over video chat or draw a neighbor that you often see out your window.

2. Reflect on the new things that you notice about their face, movements, and habits through this process of deep observation.

About FWM @ Home and the Quarantine Prints Series

FWM has a long history of challenging Artists-in-Residence and staff to use innovative materials, methods, and art-making practices. During the museum’s spring 2020 closure as a result of the COVID-19 public health crisis, our education team considered the challenges art teachers and caregivers were facing and developed the Quarantine Prints series in response as an opportunity to explore and expand ideas of art making.

Each exercise can be adjusted to suit the age and abilities of students and/or family members. Use these projects to imagine new materials, tools, and possibilities in times of uncertainty and resourceful living. Visit our website for additional activities in the series, check out FWM’s YouTube channel for how-to videos created by FWM staff, and share images of your results on social media using the hashtags #FWMatHome and #FabricWorkshop!
